Dear Madam:

I have your letter, together with the list of Decorations which I am returning. I would refer you to Mr. C. S. Gifford, of your city, 340 Commonwealth Avenue; and should he be in no position to consider acquiring any of these pieces, I would suggest your writing to Mr. Harrold E. Gillingham, 432 West Price Street, Philadelphia, Pa. With both of these gentlemen, however, I should think your chances of aiding your friend would be greatly enhanced if you could have the price at which your friend holds these pieces indicated, for it is hardly reasonable to expect a collector to place a valuation on something he has not seen; and while I do not question the descriptions on your list, your chances of success would be greater as I have suggested above.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

My dear sir -

Thank you very much for your letter of the 7th.

I am writing the two gentlemen you so kindly suggested & will hope to be able to aid the owner of the medals. Very truly yours.
Lucy J. Makohin.
